Junction is throwing a pre-Festival party + everyone is invited!

Junction Arts Festival (Junction) today announces a 2019 program launch party kicking off Friday July 5th at Sawtooth ARI Gallery.

Celebrate the launch of Junction with Festival artists + 300 of your closest friends.

The party will see local brews, wines and spirits served alongside a raucous lineup featuring Bad Beef and DJs.

Junction Creative Director Greg Clarke said “We can’t wait to share the 2019 festival program with everyone, and what better way to do that, than with a big party”.

“Everyone had such a great time at last year’s sold-out Launch Party we just had to do it again this year. Have a drink, cut loose and see what we have planned for this year’s exciting festival”, he added.

Junction returns to the Festival Hub in Prince’s Square from the 4-8 of September with a focus on Tasmanian artists, delicious food and celebrating the return of Spring. The full program will be announced July 5.

Tickets to the Launch Party go on sale Wednesday 19th of June at 7PM via www.junctionarts.com.au.
